Company based within the European Union

We are a company based within the European Union (§ 2 UStG or else Article 9 of the Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax)

We are registered with the responsible revenue authorities under the corporate name stated above. Please use the following value added tax identification number (VATIN) for the exchange of services with DTHG Service GmbH:

valid VATIN

Please note that the VATIN you provide must be validated by us via VIES (VAT Information Exchange System of the European Union). Should the data stored in VIES not be in accordance with the VATIN provided, the VATIN is not valid.

Company based outside of the European Union

We are a company based outside of the European Union. We are registered as a company with the responsible revenue authorities under the corporate name stated above.

For the exchange of services with the DTHG Service GmbH, please use the enclosed company certificate issued by our revenue authorities to prove that our place of business is outside of the European Union.

Please note that Messe Berlin GmbH reserves the right to reject the certifications provided by the contracting partner if Messe Berlin GmbH considers them unsuitable or insufficient for adequately proving the residence and entrepreneurial capacity of the contracting partner.

We hereby confirm that the services purchased using the VATIN or company certificate provided are received for the purposes of our company. The VATIN or company certificate provided is to be used for all orders made to Messe Berlin GmbH. We will inform the DTHG Service GmbH of any changes in due time.

This agreement can be revoked anytime by way of a written statement sent to the DTHG Service GmbH. We are aware that the DTHG Service GmbH will charge German VAT to us in case of a lack of entrepreneurial capacity or proof thereof.
